Think of going to town where no one knows me at the end when I graduate. Maybe others say that due to ONE particular aspect of Even My Family which you find normal or unique, but is actually quite irritating or immoral. Add to this the many other social experiences we had where we felt put down, shamed or rejected a teacher who humiliated us in front of our class, a bully at school who put us down on a daily basis and we can start Even My Family see how our inner critic took shape. I spend most weekends alone in the house. Already a member? Everyone hates me even god!
